It took Les Paul 10 years to convince Gibson Guitar Company to build the solid body electric guitar. Now his name is on one of the most popular guitars of all time.

Les Paul — inventor of the solid-body electric guitar, multi-track recording and recording techniques that are used every day by rock stars. Gold record recording artist.

lespaulfoundation.org